About Southern University Softball

The Nancy Marshall Youth Softball Camp in its 10th year will focus on developing strong skill sets for all of the participants. This dynamic camp will help the young softball players with one on one training in the most important areas of the sport.

Coach Nancy Marshall is in her 14th year as the Head Women's Softball coach. The team Coach Marshall has assembled has years of experience in the sport. Our trainers come from all over the region to support the players attending the camp. Through their years of experience, each player will gain valuable insight into how to play the game.
